Burn Fund Assistance Application (Page 2 of 2)

A member is only eligible for assistance if he/she or a member of their immediate family (spouse or child) suffered a burn injury that required *admission to a burn center. The member must provide evidence of the need for assistance (e.g., description of injury and injured party), details on anticipated expenses for which the member needs assistance (e.g., travel and lodging for the closest burn center), and/or receipts for expenses already incurred.

Any disbursement from the fund shall only be made to current IAFF members if he/she or a member of their immediate family (spouse or child) suffered a burn injury that required admission to a burn center, resulting in financial hardship. Disbursements shall only be granted for the immediate family for travel, housing, food, and other similar assistance as deemed appropriate. Funds are NOT awarded for minor injuries that do not require *admission to a burn center.

	Describe the injury and your need for financial assistance necessitating this request:
